

Sunday, June 30, 2013

Faith & Freedom: If The Foundations Are Destroyed

Psalm 11

The spiritual and moral foundations of American are – and have been for the last 50 plus years – under severe attack.

The provocation and source of the rebellion is the same: the rejection of the God of the Bible. Those instigating these attacks were not motivated by a desire to improve the system...they wanted to DESTROY the system.

The rebellion had a spiritual component: They scoffed at America's Judeo-Christian heritage. They turned to Native American religions, metaphysical cults, yoga, Zen, Buddhism and the worship of the earth.

To these "New Age" cults and religions they brought an obsession for drugs, free love, and open, uninhibited sex. They fully expected to overthrow the Christian religion and bring paganism to America. This was their intent and ultimate goal.

Herbert Marcuse encouraged the rebirth of the feminist movement and an all-out assault on Judeo-Christian morality. He encouraged homosexuality and lesbianism. He called for an assault on the English language; the use of profanity, obscenity, sexualized curse words, and violent and loud rock music, useful tools for undermining the culture of our nation.

Dr. James Kennedy has called the 20th century a "century of seduction". And the primary agents of seduction, says Dr. Kennedy, have been the perversion of truth, the debasement of sexuality and the assault on the sanctity of life.

Three words with three truths summarize the whole issue:

I. Conflict

- I Corinthians 6:9-10

II. Compensation

- The Bible calls it "the wages of sin"

III. Conclusion

- Genesis 3:4-7a
- John 10:10